

SAFER SOUTH AFRICA

FOUNDATION

Regina Sheila Moerane
Executive Manager: Safer South Africa Foundation

PROFILE

Regina Sheila Moerane has worked for the South African Police Service for 23 years, holding a number of leadership positions including that of Assistant Director (Lt Colonel), performing Human Resource functions which includes Human Resource Development and Support.

From 2013 to 2016, she was National Head Office Manager | Staff Officer in the office of the Deputy National Commissioner, before joining Loate Police Station as Head of Support.

Moerane holds a B-Tech Degree and National Diploma: Policing from the University of South Africa and has completed an Advanced Management Development Programme from the University of Pretoria.

She has extensive experience in training and development of personnel and has worked as LT Colonel (Assistant Director): Manager: Recognition of Prior Learning in the South African Police Service (2007-2013).

Within the South African Police Service, Moerane has worked as a Monitoring and Evaluation Officer, Skills Development Facilitator and has been responsible for the evaluation of learning materials.

From 1997 to 2004, she served as Warrant Officer: Strategic Management as Station Service Delivery Improvement Officer and has played a key role in Community Projects with the Community Police Forum, focusing on Anti-Rape Strategies; creating awareness at schools through School Sports Against Crime; and promoting crime prevention awareness at churches (Churches Against Crime).